

DEAN CANNONE HAS BEEN A FAIRFIELD COUNTY EXPERT FOR 30+ YEARS.

The real estate market is continually changing, and today's market demands a critical awareness of these changes and their effects.

When it comes to real estate in Fairfield County, nobody is more in tune than Dean Cannone. He has spent a lifetime in the county, and his father has been a leading real estate broker in Connecticut for over 40 years. So, not only can he design custom real estate strategies like few others in the industry, he can tell you anything and everything you need to know when buying or selling in the area.

Real estate is much more than just a business to Dean. It's not simply about buying and selling property... it's about honoring a tradition, dedication, and pride. It's about dealing with people as neighbors rather than clients, because that's who they are to Dean.

As an example of how passionate Dean is about his family and his community, consider that upon discovering his son's Autism, Dean and his wife became involved with the Connecticut Autism Spectrum Resource Center. They fully support the Center's constant resource development, community support and awareness. You can learn more at: www.CT-ASRC.org.
